

National Association of Public Hospitals and Health Systems

1301 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Suite 950
Washington, DC 20004
202 585 0100 tel / 202 585 0101 fax
www.naph.org

National Association of Public Hospitals and Health Systems
Cosponsor: Grantmakers In Health

Innovations Summit: Understanding and Addressing Population Health

Working Agenda

Background:

The summit will provide a forum for funders, policymakers, and leading safety net hospitals and health systems to discuss potential collaborations that address elements of population health.

Event Details:

Wednesday, September 19, 2012

8:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m.

Kaiser Permanente's Center for Total Health (700 Second Street, NE, Washington, DC)

-
- | | |
|------------|--|
| 8:30 a.m. | Breakfast |
| 8:45 a.m. | Welcome - Dr. Winston Wong, Medical Director
Kaiser Permanente Community Benefit Fund (confirmed) |
| 9:00 a.m. | Population Health Overview
Dr. Bruce Siegel, President and CEO, NAPH (confirmed) |
| 9:10 a.m. | Panel: Innovation and the ACA
Panel will discuss how the ACA will accelerate innovation efforts – those already underway as well as new efforts – to improve population health.

Panel moderator: Dr. Bruce Siegel
Participants to be named |
| 10:22 a.m. | Field Report: Improving Care for Vulnerable Populations
Panel will discuss impetus for program and unique position of safety net hospitals behind programs for niche populations, program impact, replicable aspects. If appropriate, hospitals will mention funding partners and also what the program could achieve if it received sustained funding.

Panel moderator: Dr. Winston Wong
Participants to be named |

(over)

11:22 a.m.

Field Report: Community-Based Population Health Solutions

Panel will discuss the fundamental community needs that drove creation of programs to improve long-term health and clinical outcomes. If appropriate, hospitals will mention funding partners and also what the program could achieve if it received sustained funding.

Panel moderator: Dr. Winston Wong

Panel participants:

- John Bluford, CEO – Truman Medical Centers, Kansas City, MO
Healthy Food Initiatives (confirmed)
- Dr. Randall Cebul – MetroHealth Medical Center, Cleveland, OH
Director, Center for Health Care Research and Policy and President, Better Health Greater Cleveland (confirmed)
- Additional panelist to be named

12:20 p.m.

Closing remarks - Dr. Bruce Siegel

12:30 p.m.

Networking lunch