

GIH PRODUCTS 2016

Meetings

- 2016 GIH Annual Conference on Health Philanthropy: Pathways to Health, San Diego, California, March 9-11
- Advocacy and Advancing Access: Healthcare for All Children, San Francisco, California, March 18 (cosponsored with Grantmakers for Children, Youth and Families; Northern California Grantmakers; San Diego Grantmakers; and Southern California Grantmakers)
- Healthy Aging Meetings, Rochester, Buffalo, Utica – New York, April 4-7 (cosponsored with Grantmakers in Aging and the NY Funders Alliance)
- Fourth Annual Public-Private Collaborations in Rural Health Meeting, Washington, DC, May 23-24 (cosponsored with White House Rural Council and the National Rural Health Association)
- Care for All: Supporting Older Adults, Family Caregivers, and the Home Health Care Workforce, New York, New York, July 18 (cosponsored with Grantmakers In Aging)
- Next Steps in Health Equity: Addressing Racial and Economic Inequality, New York, New York, July 19
- Strength in Numbers: Building Coalitions to Advance Policy Change, Washington, DC, November 15
- LGBT Health Funding Summit, Washington, DC, December 6 (cosponsored with Funders Concerned About AIDS; Funders for LGBTQ Issues; Funders Network on Population, Reproductive Health and Rights; and A Philanthropic Partnership for Black Communities)

Articles

- “All Politics are Local: Preemption and Public Health” by Marjorie Paloma, Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, January 19
- “Policy Unsweetened: Tackling Sugar-Sweetened Beverages” by Colin Pekruhn, Grantmakers In Health, January 19
- “The Health Care neighborhood: Philanthropy’s Role in Aging Well” by Gregory DiDomenico, Community Memorial Foundation, February 16
- “Is the Energy Boom in Your Backyard? Oil and Gas Extraction Threatens Health and Communities Across the United States” by Philip Johnson, The Heinz Endowments, February 16
- “Adaptive Leadership: The Next Requirement for Sustainable Community Health Improvements?” by Jandel Allen-Davis, Kaiser Permanente Colorado, March 22
- “A Healthy Public Needs More Than Public Health: Lessons for Addressing Substance Use” by Kima Taylor, Open Society Foundation, March 22
- “Increasing Access to Oral Health Care in Missouri: One Funder’s Approach” by Cynthia Hayes, Missouri Foundation for Health, April 19
- “Supporting Young Men and Boys of Color: Targeting as a Case for Health Equity” by Maisha Simmons, Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, May 17

- “Age-Friendly Communities: Cross-sector Collaboration at Work” by Anne Marie Boursiquot King, Tufts Health Plan Foundation, May 17
- “Bridging Community: Development, Health, and Metrics” by Meryl Dann and Kristina Gray-Akpa, GIH, May 17
- “Developing the Culture for Long-Term Success” by Kim Moore, United Methodist Health Ministry Fund, June 21
- “A Few Thoughts 15 Years Later” by Frances Sheehan, Brandywine Health Foundation, June 21
- “Measuring the Impact of Policy-Focused Work: Difficult but Necessary” by Michelle Doty and Rachel Nuzum, The Commonwealth Fund, August 2
- “One Funder’s Role in Medicaid Expansion and Affordable Care Act Implementation” by Mitchell Balk, Mt. Sinai Health Care Foundation, August 2
- “Foundations’ Roles in Addressing Tobacco Use” by Jessica Hembree, Health Care Foundation of Greater Kansas City, Matthew Kuhlenbeck, Missouri Foundation for Health, Jeffrey Willett, Kansas Health Foundation, August 30
- “New Research Can Help Health and Housing Experts Arrive at a Common Messaging Frame” by Tiffany Manuel, Enterprise Community Partners, Inc., August 30
- “The Value of Health Impact Assessments in Housing” by Rebecca Morley, Pew Charitable Trusts, August 30
- “Community Focused Health Philanthropy” by Louis Beccaria, Phoenixville Community Health Foundation, September 27
- “The Vital Role of Regional Associations in U.S. Health Philanthropy” by David Biemesderfer, Forum of Regional Associations of Grantmakers, September 27
- “Ending Mass Incarceration is a Public Health Imperative” by David Cloud, Vera Institute of Justice, October 18
- “Cleveland’s Greater University Circle Initiative: An Anchor-Based Strategy for Change” by Robert Eckardt, The Cleveland Foundation, October 18
- “Co-Funding in Texas: Lessons for National and Regional Partnerships” by Elena Marks, Episcopal Health Foundation and Liane Wong, The David and Lucile Packard Foundation, October 18
- “How Foundations Can be Engaged this Election Year” by Shyaam Subramanian, Alliance for Justice, October 18
- “Promoting Health Equity through Paid Leave” by Patrick Hain, Annie E. Casey Foundation, Yanique Redwood, Consumer Health Foundation, Anna Wadia, Ford Foundation, November 8
- “Building a Field for Health Equity Advocacy: Reflections from a Grantee-Driven Approach” by Noelle Melchizedek, The Colorado Trust, December 20

Reports

- Stanford Social Innovation Review: Innovations in Health Equity, February 18
- Annual Report 2015, July 12
- Policy Engagement by Local Health Funders, August 26

Webinars

- Supporting Family Caregivers: A Look at State and National Trends, January 19 (cosponsored with Grantmakers In Aging)
- The Flint Water Crisis: A Primer on Philanthropy's Role, February 8 (cosponsored with Consultative Group on Biological Diversity; EDGE Funders' Alliance; Environmental Grantmakers Association; Funders' Committee for Civic Participation; Funders' Network for Smart Growth and Livable Communities; Grantmakers In Health, Great Lakes Funder Collaboration; Health and Environmental Funders Network; Neighborhood Funders Group; and Rachel's Network)
- Advocacy and Advancing Access: Healthcare for All Children, March 18 (cosponsored with Grantmakers for Children, Youth and Families; Northern California Grantmakers; San Diego Grantmakers; and Southern California Grantmakers)
- Using Housing as a Platform to Improve Health, March 31 (cosponsored with Funders Together to End Homelessness)
- How States Strengthen Local Food Systems, April 20 (cosponsored with Sustainable Agriculture and Food Systems Funders)
- Can Mobile Applications Improve Health Outcomes?, April 21
- Food Marketing to Children, April 22 (cosponsored with Sustainable Agriculture and Food Systems Funders)
- What the Flint Water Crisis Tells Us about Public Health, Lead Risks, and Safe Water Nationally, April 22 (cosponsored with Consultative Group on Biological Diversity; EDGE Funders' Alliance; Environmental Grantmakers Association; Funders' Committee for Civic Participation; Funders' Network for Smart Growth and Livable Communities; Great Lakes Funder Collaboration; Health and Environmental Funders Network; Neighborhood Funders Group; Rachel's Network; and Sustainable Agriculture and Food Systems Funders)
- Opportunities to Address Substance Use Disorders, April 26
- Strategic Learning: Pacesetting Practices, May 17
- Moving the Needle on Medicaid Expansion, May 19
- Mental Health and Addiction Policy Briefing, May 25
- Building Healthy Communities: Reducing Children's Exposure to Environmental Toxins, September 6
- Meeting Substance Use Needs with Medicaid Expansion, September 7
- Improving Health Outcomes for Seniors in Rural Communities, September 19 (cosponsored with Grantmakers In Aging and the Leona M. and Harry B. Helmsley Charitable Trust.)
- Community Health Needs Assessments that Advance the Social Determinants of Health, September 20
- Community-Based Health Systems: Using Housing as a Platform, September 21 (cosponsored with the Health and Housing Funders' Forum and The Funders' Network for Smart Growth and Livable Communities)
- Accountable Health Communities, September 30
- Chronic Absenteeism: What Are We Missing?, October 11
- Going for the Win-Win: Exploring Approaches to Climate, Health, and Equity Co-Benefit Investments, October 17 (cosponsored with the Health & Environmental Funders Network and Climate and Energy Funders Group)

- Connecting the Dots between Transportation and Health Equity, October 18 (cosponsored with The Funders' Network for Smart Growth and Livable Communities)
- Adapting Your Health Reform-Related Grantmaking Post-Election, November 17
- The Election's Impact on Medicaid, November 18
- Trump's Presidency and the New Congress: What the Future Holds for Immigrants and Refugees, November 21 (cosponsored with Asian Americans/Pacific Islanders in Philanthropy; Colorado Association of Funders; Council on Foundations; Forefront; Forum of Regional Associations of Grantmakers; Funders for LGBTQ Issues; Funders' Committee for Civic Participation; Funders' Network for Smart Growth and Livable Communities; Grantmakers for Girls of Color; Grantmakers of Oregon and Southwest Washington; Hispanics in Philanthropy; International Human Rights Funders Group; Northern California Grantmakers; Neighborhood Funders Group; Philanthropy New York; Philanthropy Northwest; Proteus Fund; Sustainable Agriculture & Food Systems Funders; Southern California Grantmakers; and San Diego Grantmakers)
- Involving Youth in Efforts to Improve Population Health, November 22
- Healthy Food Financing Initiatives: Lessons from Ohio on a Growing National Movement, December 6 (cosponsored with Sustainable Agriculture and Food Systems Funders)
- The Election's Implications for CHIP and Children's Coverage, December 15
- Looking Ahead to 2017: What's in Store for Medicaid, December 19

Calls

- CEO Working Group on Access and Coverage, October 21

Peer Review

- United Methodist Health Ministry Fund – Peer Review Team: Pat Baker, Connecticut Health Foundation; Gary Nelson, Healthcare Georgia Foundation; Susan Zepeda, Foundation for a Healthy Kentucky; and Eileen Salinsky, Grantmakers In Health (July – September)

Podcasts

- 2016 Annual Conference Plenary Remarks: David Hemenway, Recorded March 11
- 2016 Annual Conference Plenary Remarks: Paul Rieckhoff, Recorded March 10
- 2016 Terrance Keenan Award Speech, Recorded March 10
- 2016 Annual Conference Plenary Remarks: The Bigger Picture, Recorded March 9
- Enroll America on Outreach and Enrollment, Recorded May 2
- Affordability and the ACA, Recorded October 4
- 2016 Lauren LeRoy Health Policy Lecture: Manuel Pastor, Recorded November 15

Grantmaker Focus

- Northwest Health Foundation (January)
- Healthcare Foundation of New Jersey (February)
- Alliance Healthcare Foundation (March)
- Harvard Pilgrim Health Care Foundation (April)
- Paso del Norte Health Foundation (May)
- The Colorado Trust (June)
- New York State Health Foundation (July/August)
- HealthSpark Foundation (August)
- Vitalyst Health Foundation (September)
- Greater Clark Foundation (October)
- W.K. Kellogg Foundation (November)
- Montana Healthcare Foundation (December)

Terrance Keenan Award

- 2016 Winner
Amy Berman
The John A. Hartford Foundation, Inc.

2016 TKI Fellows

- |                       |  |
|-----------------------|--|
| • Jamie Brown         | Colorado Springs Health Foundation                 |
| • Jennifer Chubinski  | Interact for Health                                |
| • Nhia Daryoushfar    | Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Minnesota Foundation |
| • Alexa Eggleston     | Conrad N. Hilton Foundation                        |
| • Alan Eversley       | Aetna Foundation, Inc.                             |
| • Marcy Felsenfeld    | The Healthcare Foundation of New Jersey            |
| • Alyson Ferguson     | Thomas Scattergood Behavioral Health Foundation    |
| • Rebecca Gallo       | MetroWest Health Foundation                        |
| • Deidre Griffith     | Missouri Foundation for Health                     |
| • Michele Guzman      | Meadows Mental Health Policy Institute             |
| • Shalini Iyer        | Metta Fund   |
| • Randy Lopez         | Wyandotte Health Foundation                        |
| • Kimalon Meriweather | The Cleveland Foundation                           |
| • Brian Myers         | Empire Health Foundation                           |
| • Catherine Patterson | de Beaumont Foundation                             |
| • Tanya Shah          | The Commonwealth Fund                              |
| • Erica Snow          | The Colorado Health Foundation                     |
| • Kathryn Wehr        | Robert Wood Johnson Foundation                     |
| • Liane Wong          | The David and Lucile Packard Foundation            |
| • Janelle Woods       | Harvard Pilgrim Health Care Foundation             |