RESULTS OF GRANTMAKERS IN HEALTH'S 2021 REVIEW OF Health Care Conversion Foundations

WHAT ARE HEALTH CARE CONVERSION FOUNDATIONS?

GIH'S DEFINITION

Foundations created when nonprofit health care organizations convert to for-profit status; foundations created through the transfer of assets from a nonprofit organization to a for-profit company or to another nonprofit organization; and foundations that receive additional assets from the conversion, sale, lease, or other form of transaction involving a nonprofit health care organization.

ORIGINS

Assets are derived from FINANCIAL TRANSACTIONS
involving nonprofit health care organizations

Federal and most state laws require assets resulting from nonprofit sales or other financial transactions to be USED FOR A CHARITABLE PURPOSE
similar to those of the original nonprofit entity

TYPES OF NONPROFIT HEALTH CARE ORGANIZATIONS CONVERTED

OTHER TYPES INCLUDE:

Air ambulance service, Assisted living facility, Dental plan, Dialysis center, Hospice, Nursing home, Occupational health and employee assistance program, PACE program, Visiting nurse service

ABOUT THIS REPORT

This infographic presents a snapshot of an important sector within the field of health philanthropy. Information was obtained from foundation websites, as well as from Candid's Foundation Directory Online, and the Internal Revenue Service's online database of tax-exempt organizations. All assets, unless otherwise noted, are from 2018 IRS Form 990 or 990 PF filings. A supplemental article and directory of conversion foundations can be found in *Update from the Field: Results of Grantmakers in Health's 2021 Review of Health Care Conversion Foundations*

Support for this project is provided by the Effective Philanthropy Fund and Robert Wood Johnson Foundation.
